COUTERS OF BONDY

Bondy’s Count adds up the forces in presence to put in motion the transformation of the city from the inside.

Bondy’s Count allows to increase and diversify activities of the zone, setting services and spaces in the fringing zone, using the different times of the city.

Bondy’s Count seeks to progressively modify the old city structure of the area in order to create a neighborhood opens towards the canal.

Bondy’s Count seeks to stimulate the area through a game of actions, using the evocative capacities of the industrial warehouses and the parking lots.

Bondy’s Count turns under the skins of the warehouses to unveil the richness of the commercial landscapes.

Bondy’s Count takes the road towards urbanization, using warehouses at service, taking the time of preparation to step forward in designing and rehabilitating the city.